

Driving the future of urban mobility: KONČAR's new initiatives

Building on its longstanding expertise in transport solutions, KONČAR has secured contracts for 20 new low-floor trams and six hybrid electro-diesel trains. This move underscores the company's dedication to modernizing fleets with cutting-edge technology while enhancing energy efficiency and reducing environmental impact.

Read more

Breaking new ground in Azerbaijan

Marking a key milestone, KONČAR wins its inaugural contract in Azerbaijan's energy sector to supply generators for hydropower plants.

Read more

Energy transition

Powering Denmark's future: KONČAR's advanced transformers for a resilient grid.

Read more

Expanding footprint in Cyprus with key power grid contract

As part of Cyprus's efforts to modernize its power grid, KONČAR has secured a contract to reconstruct three crucial 132 kV substations, enhancing grid transmission capacity and facilitating the integration of renewable energy sources.

Read more

Unlocking new business potential: Collaboration with Korea Testing & Research Institute

Partnership with Korea Testing & Research Institute enhances certification services, fosters joint innovation projects, and facilitates the exchange of specialized technical expertise.

Read more

Landing contract for GREEN LINE transformers in Portugal

Six new transformer substations in Portugal's national grid to be powered by GREEN LINE low-carbon transformers.

Read more

Strengthening ties with Hitachi Energy Poland

Following a series of successful vacuum chamber projects, KONČAR delivers its first transformer tank, marking an expanded partnership with Hitachi Energy Poland.

Read more

This mailing was sent to: user@example.com

Follow us on:

Subscribe - Edit data - Forward - Unsubscribe

Update your email preferences or unsubscribe here.
View our privacy policy here.

© 2025 All rights reserved.